About Rabs Vhafuwi

Born Rabelani Madula in Dzimauli Mukondeni in Venda, Limpopo, and widely known as Rabs Vhafuwi, this thorough Artist, Producer, and DJ pursued a different corporate career before music. His deep, soulful house signature did not happen overnight for the self-taught Artist, Producer, and DJ.

As with many parents, Rabs Vhafuwi's parents insisted that he pursue a safe career not necessarily music, and he did exactly that (Completed BSC Production Management, Opeation Management, FMP Gibs) working in the retail corporate space while also perfecting the producing and dj'ying skills he had picked up years earlier. When Count Your Blessings was released Rabs Vhafuwi knew his life was about to change. Gigs started pouring in, so did different collaboration offers.

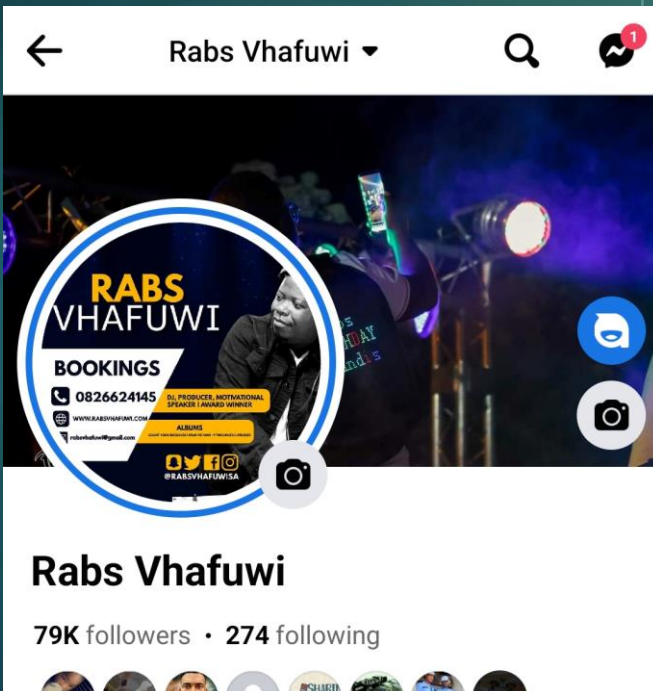

Rabs Vhafuwi's corporate experience came in handy in planning and executing ideas and steering his new career into greater heights. He heard stories of other Artists not being able to make ends meet, which sparked an idea to start his own company Freeze The Moment Productions to house all his affairs including bookings, distributions, and licensing.
